

In the Name of Allah Most Gracious and Most Merciful Objectives and Goals for ICEV Sunday Islamic School

Academic & Intellectual Objectives

- To teach Quranic Arabic at various levels including independent levels for special needs children
- To teach Tajweed
- To teach the 5 Pillars of Islam at various levels (Iman & Ibadah)
- To teach Surahs and ayats pertaining to Salat and beyond. (Meaning & Tafseer in upper grades)
- To teach the proper sequence of Wudhu
- To teach the proper performance of Azaan & Salat
- To teach the Life of the Prophet (s.a.w.) at various levels
- To teach the lives of the other Prophets (r.a.)
- To teach the lives of the Companions of the Prophet (s.a.w.)
- To teach the history of Islam beyond the lives of the Companions. (Seniors)
- To apply the teaching of Islam in daily life
- To discuss Current Affairs in relation to Islam (Seniors)
- To teach Islamic Etiquette and Behavior based on the Quran, Hadith and Sunnah of the Prophet (s.a.w.)
- Islamic Fiqh & Shariah
- Increase of knowledge via weekly Quiz on Islam
- To involve the Juniors & Seniors in Independent Research on Islamic Topics
- To encourage and provide opportunities for Writing & Computer Skills
- To encourage the participation in Seminars sponsored by the Muslim Community in the Valley.
- To invite visiting Scholars & Speakers to the school
- To test knowledge learned through Tests & Exams.

Social and Emotional Objectives

- To promote an environment of Muslim peers
- To promote self esteem through respectful teacher –child interaction.
- To promote pride in being a Muslim
- To address challenges and values found in Public Schools.
- To develop Public Speaking skill & confidence by reciting Surahs & Azaan
- To develop the bonding and acceptance of ethnicity found in the student body via class and school fieldtrips.
- To allow healthy expression and interaction of thoughts and ideas
- To reward good Islamic Behavior and Academic performance
- To provide an opportunity for group planning, accepting responsibility, ending in the execution of the School Day Program.